

GOD SAW YOU Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be so He put His arms around you and whispered, "Come to Me."

With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away and although we love you dearly we could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.e.

I'M Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch

If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

The family of the late Clifford Mitchell extends thanks and appreciation for their acts of kindness and their expressions of sympathy and love during these hours of bereavement. May God continue to bless and keep all of you in His care.

LIFE REFLECTIONS OF

Clifford MITCHELL

Clifford Mitchell was born in Southern Georgia on June 6, 1941 to father, Prince Mitchell and mother, Eugene Mitchell, both who preceded her in death. The Lord called Clifford Mitchell home on December 24, 2023.

Clifford educated in the Southern Georgia School System. Clifford faced many obstacles in life and later moved to Trenton, NJ, before settling in Philadelphia, PA. She was employed at Trenton Courthouse and was also a farm lady where she picked apples. Clifford was a funny old lady who loved to make people laugh, her presence made people laugh so hard we cried our eyes out, a true comedian. Clifford was a daughter and sister to her family.

Clifford later in life met the love of her life who preceded her in death. Clifford later reunited with her family, with who she spent the rest of life (1992-2023). Christine, John, their children, family and friends all welcomed Clifford in as their own. Clifford was a funny caring and truly genuine person. Clifford was one of the funniest people we all ever met. She made sure she made her presence known no matter who was around her, Clifford always going to do her big one all the time. Clifford made sure she made that loud noise, so you knew she was here. Her favorites saying was, "Behave. "Go'on now", "now leave me alone and holla out" and "I wanna go to bed" lol.

Clifford loved going to Atlantic City, long car rides and watching her favorite shows Jeopardy and Good Times, her favorite soda was Coca Cola and cakes or scream out loud fix me something to eat even though her food would be in her hand she was that funny lady that had to make her presence at all time.

Clifford was a funny sweet old lady but mean if she didn't get her way. But don't worry Clifford was going to have it her way one way or another if you like it or not. She love going to her programs (friends hospital) Clifford had the biggest smile that was so big it would make you just want to bid on her. She loved to play fight with the kids and love to sneak your food when you walk away Clifford will forever be missed never forgotten and will never get another lady like Clifford. She would holler when she needed you then play like she never called your name Clifford leaves to cherish her memory behind who she truly love Christine who was like a daughter to her and John that was like a son to her and her favorite 2 people was Jamila and Tyree she leaves behind: Ervin, (Saleem who proceeded in death) Keem and her 2 girls who she loved a lot Tiffany and Asia that was her girls and Jamal. A lot of great great grandchildren and special great grand makilah who she loved so much. Host of family and friends. That Clifford Knew She Was That Girl Everyone Loved
