PRAYER MEETING

Jesus told the story of the Good Samaritan in response to a question posed by a young lawyer: "What must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus answered the question with the story of the good Samaritan and then at the end of his story, Jesus gave the young lawyer the charge—"Go and do likewise!" In other words, "go now and treat people you despise with the compassion and the same mercy as the Samaritan displayed." Read Luke 10:25-37 for the complete story and then join us in the church sanctuary at 7:00 p.m. this Wednesday, October 25 to help us unravel the spiritual lessons wrapped up in this parable for us today.

EDUCATION NUGGET

Education Begins at Home—It is in the home that the education of the child is to begin. Here is his first school. Here, with his parents as instructors, he is to learn the lessons that are to guide him throughout life—lessons of respect, obedience, reverence, self-control. The educational influences of the home are a decided power for good or for evil. They are in many respects silent and gradual, but if exerted on the right side, they become a far-reaching power for truth and righteousness. If the child is not instructed aright here, Satan will educate him through agencies of his choosing. How important, then, is the school in the home! 1. Here the Foundations Are Laid—Upon all parents there rests the obligation of giving physical, mental, and spiritual instruction. It should be the object of every parent to secure to his child a well-balanced, symmetrical character. This is a work of no small magnitude and importance—a work requiring earnest thought and prayer no less than patient, persevering effort. A right foundation must be laid, a framework, strong and firm, erected; and then day by day the work of building, polishing, perfecting, must go forward. 2. Deny the Child Anything but This Right—Parents, remember that your home is a training school, in which your children are to be prepared for the home above. Deny them anything rather than the education that they should receive in their earliest years. Allow no word of pettishness. Teach your children to be kind and patient...Angela Wisdom

THANK YOU

Thank you everyone for showing such brotherly love to me with your cards and other compliments in the terminal departure of my dear sister, Millicent Archer. She lived a good life and went to sleep at the good age of 95 years, where she awaits the Master's call, "awake you who are sleeping, and arise." Millicent has left to mourn, many including her husband who is 99 years of age. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.—Eric Timothy.
