DON'T CRY FOR ME

Don't cry for me. I will be okay.
Heaven is my home now, and this is where I'll stay.

Don't cry for me. I'm where I belong.
I want you to be happy and try to stay strong.

Don't cry for me. It was just my time,
but I will see you someday on the other side.

Don't cry for me. I am not alone.
The angels are with me to welcome me home.

Don't cry for me. For I have no fear.
All my pain is gone, and Jesus took my tears.

Don't cry for me. This is not the end.
I'll be waiting here for you when we meet again

EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE

We, the family of the late Harold "Cisco" Miles, wish to extend our deepest gratitude for the multitude of kindnesses and expressions of love extended to us. Your thoughtful gestures, prayers, visits, and phone calls during our time of mourning have touched our hearts profoundly. Your support has not gone unnoticed, and we are truly grateful. May God continue to bless you abundantly.

OBITUARY

Harold "Cisco" Miles, 68, of Lynchburg, Virginia, passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, May 2, 2024. He is preceded in death by his father, Oakley Miles, his mother, Lena Miles, and his sisters, Lena Gregg and Carolyn Miles.

Cisco was born on December 19, 1955, in Charles City County, Virginia. He graduated from Charles City High School in 1974. While in high school, as a Junior and Senior, he drove the school bus. He continued his education at Virginia Commonwealth University and graduated from Richmond Broadcasting School. He was known for being the DJ at Phase IV Supper Club in Charles City, VA. He was also a dedicated DJ at the following radio stations: WENZ in Richmond, Va., 30 years at WJJS, and WLL in Lynchburg, Va. He also DJed at many weddings and social events. He was a faithful Sexton worker at Fairview United Methodist Church, mentoring many children to a higher education. Cisco worked as a transit driver for the Greater Lynchburg Transit Company (GLTC). He also worked part-time for Lynchburg City School, driving the school bus.

One of Cisco's passions was going camping. He truly enjoyed exploring various campgrounds with his family, teaching them the art of fishing and crabbing, and simply enjoying the outdoors. He would refer to it as "enjoying God's country." Throughout their trips, several family members and friends joined them for a week of camping. Cisco also enjoyed talking to everyone he came in contact with. It did not matter what walk of life you came from; he had a conversation for you. He was one of those people that made you feel like you knew him forever.

Cisco is survived by his loving wife, Margie Miles; his son Earl Bryant and daughters Tyria Tweedy, Ariyanna, Ariyah, and Alexia Tweedy Miles; his grandchildren Jamahri Carey, Lakim, and Ishmael Bryant, and Sanaa Lambert; his brother Herman Miles Sr. (Sara); a host of nieces and nephews, cousins, and many loving friends, including his best friends Robert Goins (Madladd), Billy Lawrence, and Cleo Johnson.
