

DOUGLAS CHARLES DURRWACHTER

Douglas Charles Durrwachter, 95 of Bowling Green died at 7:25 p.m. June 16, 2008, at a local nursing home.

The Stuart County, TN. Native was a retired electrician with General Motors Corp. and a member of Bumpus Mills Church of Christ and United Auto Workers, where he was the original organizer of union Local No. 25 in St. Louis. He was also a member of the Civilian Conservation Corp. He was a son of the late John Calvin Durrwachter and Margaret Whal Durrwachter and the husband of the late Mary Bolene Shoemaker Durrwachter. He was preceded in death by a son, Ronald Durrwachter; four brothers, Charles, Henry, Bobby and Teddy Durrwachter; and three sisters, Kay Kiser, Margaret Bennett and Louise Bellagamba.

Funeral is at 1 p.m. Saturday at Anglin Funeral Home in Dover, TN., with burial in Temple Hill Cemetery in Murray. Visitation is from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. Friday at the funeral home in Dover. Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green chapel is in charge of local arrangements.

Survivors include a son, John Durrwachter and his wife, Virginia, of Bowling Green; two brothers, J.C. Durrwachter and his wife, Dorothy, and Neal Durrwachter, all of St. Louis; a sister, Opal Courtois of St. Louis and Mike Durrwachter and his wife, Julie, of Springfield, Mo.; two stepgrandsons, Richard Mann and his wife, Pia, of Germany and Marty Eubanks and his wife Laura, of Bowling Green; three granddaughters, Kali Durrwachter of Troy, ILL., Kara Balass and her husband, Erio, of St. Peters, MO., and Connie Durrwachter of St. Louis; two great grandchildren, Levi and Alexa Durrwachter, both of Springfield; four great step grandchildren, Remy Mann of Germany, Cassie Roth of Florida and Andrew Eubanks and Haley Eubanks both of Bowling Green; and 36 nieces and nephews.

Send Condolences