Gina Renae McCallum, 53, of Salado, passed away on February 10, 2024, leaving behind a legacy of kindness and beautiful memories. Born on June 9, 1970, in Dallas, Gina was the beloved daughter of Gene Pearson and Georgia Ann Pearson.

Gina graduated from Rogers High School in 1988. She married the love of her life, Lyle McCallum on May 20, 2000, it was love at first sight for them both. They created a life they loved full of memories that will be cherished always. Gina loved being a mother and showered her daughter Taylor with unconditional love and support throughout her life. As a family-oriented person at heart, Gina found immense joy in gathering friends and family together.

Gina's journey in life was filled with remarkable accomplishments and meaningful contributions to her community. Gina possessed an innate passion for all things creative and consistently sought avenues to express herself through her creativity. She owned Cookies Galore by Gina, and her cookies captured the hearts of many. She put love in every delectable treat she crafted. Gina devoted her time and talent to making beautiful mums for local school homecomings, planning events, and doing anything she could to make moments special for others. Gina even convinced her husband Lyle to venture into the world of raising puppies and flipping homes. Their dedication and hard work gave many people beloved companions, and they transformed houses into cozy homes for family and friends. Apart from her entrepreneurial endeavors, Gina had a soft spot for children and dedicated herself to helping local charity organizations. She volunteered tirelessly at local food banks, church fundraisers, and anything she could do to help the community.

Sadly, illness took Gina from this world too soon. However, we take solace knowing that she leaves behind a profound impact on those who were lucky enough to have known her. Her memory will forever live on in the hearts of her loved ones and the countless lives she touched.

She is preceded in death by her father, Gene Pearson.

Gina is survived by her devoted husband, Lyle McCallum of Salado; her loving mother, Georgia Ann Pearson of Temple; her beloved daughter, Taylor Rogers and her husband, Eric from San Antonio; her cherished sister, Heather Strickland of Rogers; numerous family members, and countless friends who will miss her dearly.

During this time of mourning, may we find comfort in the memories we shared with Gina and cherish the legacy she leaves behind. Let us remember her as a beacon of creativity and love—a beautiful woman who continuously touched lives with her selflessness. Though she may be physically gone from our sight, Gina will forever remain alive in our hearts. Her spirit will guide us as we navigate through life's joys and challenges.

In lieu of flowers memorials may be made in her honor to the Bell County Animal Shelter.

Gina Renae McCallum

We thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday and days before that too.
We think of you in silence, we often speak your name.
All we have now are memories and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake with whom we will never part.
God has you in His keeping, we have you in our hearts.
In life we loved you dearly, in death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place, no one else can ever fill.
It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone.
A part of us went with you the day God took you home.
