

Media Release Form

MEDIA

Students enrolled at Cross Street Christian School will be photographed and included in our yearbook and other school publications. This includes but not limited to news reports, web pages, brochures, and other sources of media. All rights, title, and interest in the photography and media outlets belong to said school and there will be no student or family financial compensation for the use of any of the photos or media. Cross Street Christian School has the sole control over them to edit, copy, alter, and revise them. Cross Street Christian School further retains control over their use and distribution.

STATEMENT OF HANDBOOK ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I hereby acknowledge that a copy of the Cross Street Christian School Handbook has been provided to me and that I understand its requirements and agree that I am responsible to read and review it in its entirety, including any revisions, during my child's enrollment at the school. I willing agree to its provisions. I am committed to helping my child comply with the guidelines stated in the handbook.
