MY PRAYER

Father, whom I cannot see, I know that Thou art there for me.
Thou art perfect, I am not. I want to do just what I ought.
Thy Son gave up his life and then restored Himself to live again.
His resurrection led the way for all of us to live someday.

Our Savior faced His destiny. And so with much humility
Shall I confront what faces me, aligned with my mortality.
And so with much humility I shall confront what faces me.

Some laws ignored, others broken, but I remember Thou hast spoken
Of forgiveness for my sake. The Sacrament I will partake.
Thou hast sacrificed thy Son that I may live. It shall be done.
I promise henceforth to obey that I may live with thee someday.

They mocked and lashed with whips and scorns and ridiculed with crowns of thorns.
They pierced His hands with spikes to fasten, nailed His wrists with no compassion.

He could have chosen to withdraw but chose to fill the greater law.
He knew Thy will, dear Father. He would sacrifice His life for me.

Our Savior faced His destiny. And so with much humility
Shall I confront what faces me, aligned with my mortality.
And so with much humility I shall confront what faces me.
