Christopher The Warrior

Christopher, what can I say? You truly have lived your life even in the state of infirmity. You have taught me the more- how to persevere in adversity. You taught me how to love (agape- love of Christ) the more. You taught me to be more compassionate.

You were born May 26, 2003 as a Prophet of God. You were confirmed by leadership as a Prophet but never ordained in a service. But you carried and operated in your office. Even without a piece of paper saying who you were. You walked in your calling and carried out your assignment. Some people have been in ministry for years and have not accomplished what you have. You have superseded every negative word that was spoken over your life from birth until you went to sleep in the Lord. You beat the odds of what man said. You were a walking, breathing miracle of God.

You, the Warrior, a Silent Killer in the spirit of God, from the bed to a wheelchair, could pray, praise, lay hands on people, and guess what??? Could even cast out a demon! You left this world at sixteen. In the prophetic, sixteen represents Christ's love for humanity. And that's what you gave everyone that you encountered.

I thank my God for four beautiful years with you. 1 Thessalonians says those who reign in Christ will sleep for a little while. You are resting in God Now!!! I Hear the Sound of VICTORY, KABOOM!

Remembering You,
Pastor Kimberly McGert
