Our Speaker

Pastor Oswald S. Euell, D.Min., is the Executive Secretary of the Northeastern Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. He is a committed pastor, church administrator and evangelist who has been recognized for his outstanding ministry and unwavering commitment to the mission of Christ.

Dr. Euell's ministry began in the Western New York area, and has continued through Hudson Valley, Queens and Brooklyn, New York. During his tenure,

Dr. Euell has served in several capacities at the Northeastern Conference: Personal Ministries Director, Sabbath School Director; Chairman of Personal Ministries with the Black Caucus of the Regional Conferences, and the Chairman of the Committee on Lay Training for the General Conference Initiative on Evangelism for NYC. Additionally, he has written extensively on Evangelism Strategies and Leadership Skills for Laity and Clergy.

Dr. Euell organized both the "Year of Lay Evangelism", where over 2,000 souls accepted Christ, and "Harvest 2011", to help maintain Church growth within the Northeastern Conference. In addition to his ministry, Pastor Euell has been recognized for his community service work as a legal resource for Minorities in the New York State Legal Aid Society.

Dr. Euell has travelled extensively to various World Divisions where he has conducted crusades, baptized hundreds of souls and planted and developed new churches. He has trained and developed seminarians and pastors for ministry through the Andrews University Theological Seminary Field School of Evangelism.

He holds a Doctorate of Ministry, and is currently completing a Ph.D. Degree in Religious Education.

Dr. Euell is a devoted husband, father of three children and a son of Jamaica. Most importantly, he loves people and wants to make Heaven his home.
