Grace Elaine Zweifel was born January 25, 1952 to Henry John and Elizabeth Johanna (Asche) Zweifel. She grew up on the family farm north of Scotland, South Dakota, with her two sisters, Mary and Joan Zweifel. After Grace graduated from Scotland High School, she moved to Yankton where she worked at Buhl's Cleaners for many years.

Grace and Joan were always together and enjoyed long daily walks around Yankton. Grace enjoyed fashion including wearing jewelry; a new cap/hat and sunglasses.

Grace will be remembered for always greeting everyone with a smiling face, and had an amazing ability to remember peoples' names, where they lived, and details about their family – she didn't forget anything. Her sister, Joan, was her best friend. Grace loved her rabbit "Snowball" along with her and Joan's dog, Bear.
