

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

John 14: 1-4

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

Obituary

Ruthie Mae McGee, 78, of Concord, NC, passed away on December 25, 2021.

Ruthie was born in Sarasota, FL on September 28, 1943 to the late Samuel and Ella Mae Langston.

Loving and kind are the first two words that come to mind to describe Ruthie. She loved her family and would help anyone she could. Ruthie enjoyed traveling and having fun at the casino when she had a chance to go. She liked many different types of sports and enjoyed several television shows. She was a loving mother, grandmother, sister and friend.

She is survived by her daughters Andrea McGee and Mechelle Agee, grandchildren Lauren Johnson and Joshua Phillips, great grandchildren Davionte and Kierra, her siblings Janie Green, Mildred Thomas, Teresa Haygood, and Samuel Langston, Jr. (Barbara), and a host of family and friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family would like for you to leave your stories and memories in the Guestbook below. Your memories and stories to serve as a loving tribute to Ruthie. She will be greatly missed.
