

Adventist Theological Society
Annual Scholarly Dialogue
November 21, 2009

Wyndham Riverfront Hotel
701 Convention Center Boulevard
New Orleans, Louisiana 70130
504-681-1056

Theme: “The Role of Culture in Applying Biblical, Ethical, and Lifestyle Principles”

Program Chair: Roy Gane
(Andrews University, President of ATS)

*Presentations are in 40 minute slots—
20 min. presentation + 20 min. discussion
Followed by 10 min. breaks*

Program

9:00-9:40 am	Randall Younker (Andrews University) “Culture and Scripture”
9:50-10:30 am Austria)	Winfried Vogel (Seminar Schloss Bogenhofen, “The Holy and the Profane in Scripture and in Adventism”
10:40-11:20 am	Greg King (Southern Adventist University) “Jesus against the Law? Another Look at the Antitheses”

Program continued:

11:30-12:00 noon	Worship through Open Testimony Time
12:00-1:00 pm	Lunch
1:00-2:00 pm	Free Time (walking recommended)
2:00-2:40 pm	Kim Papaioannou (Adventist International Institute of Advanced Studies, Philippines) “John 5:18—Jesus and the Sabbath Law: A Fresh Look at a Challenging Text”
2:50-3:30 pm	Martin Hanna (Andrews University) “Transmitting Biblical Tradition to Contemporary Culture: Implications from Paul’s First Letter to the Corinthians”
3:40-4:10 pm	Group Prayer Time
4:10-4:50 pm	Eliezer Gonzalez (Macquarie University, Sydney, Australia) “Pauline Universalism and the Ekklesia : Diversity in Action”
5:00-6:00 pm	Open Discussion on “Biblical Principles, Culture, and Modern Lifestyle Standards” Moderator: Roy Gane
6:00-7:00 pm	Supper
7:00-8:00	Adventist Theological Society Business Meeting