SDA Church is Most Diverse - On a scale of 1 to 10, the Christian Post says the Seventh-day Adventist Church in America is at a 9.1 when it comes to racial diversity and that number makes it the most diverse religious group in the United States, according to a new study from the Pew Research Center. A breakdown of the racial fabric of the church shows that among its adherents in the U.S., 37% are white, 32 % are black, 8% are Asian, 8% are mixed race, while 15% identify as Hispanic. The church is so diverse, it had a higher diversity index than the U.S. itself – Accept all seeking truth, regardless of race and color; we are God’s children and we are to follow our father’s example.

Happy Sabbath – Celebration of Creation and Rest and today, a day of Freedom. Do not let either be taken away!
