Letter from Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see.
If the sun should rise
and find your eyes
filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry
the way you did today.
While thinking of the many things
we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me
as much as I love you;
and each time you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me,
Don't think we're far apart
for every time you think of me,
I'm right here in your heart.

God blesses you who are poor, For the Kingdom of God is yours. God blesses you who are hungry now, For you will be satisfied. God blesses you who weep now, For in due time you will laugh.

Luke 6:20-21

"A Service Designed...With You In Mind"

~ Reflections of Her Life ~

Phyllis Octavia Johnson was born October 13, 1937 to Lettie Fristoe-Hayes and Ira Hayes in Salisbury Mo. Phyllis was the 8th born of 11 children.

She attended Dalton High School, but graduated from Salisbury High School where she obtained her high school Diploma. She went on to complete her education at Kansas City Business College.

Phyllis worked for a brief time at Sears & Roebuck before retiring due to sickness at a young age.

She was married twice during that time, being blessed with 5 children, 6 grandchildren, and 3 great-grandchildren. Phyllis raised her family in Kansas City, Missouri.

Phyllis was baptized and accepted Christ into her life at an early age, She became a member of the Linwood Boulevard SDA Temple where she was a devoted member. Phyllis enjoyed going to church, reading, cooking holiday meals, and traveling. She loved spending time with her family and friends.

Phyllis departed this life on Saturday, August 12, 2023 at home surrounded by those who loved her the most. Her 9 siblings, 2 spouses, and 3 sons, Phillip, Darren, and Keith along with a host of other family and dear friends preceded her in death.

Phyllis leaves to cherish her memory, son, Michael Johnson (Loretta); daughter, Gina Poole; brother, Warren Hayes (Julie); grandchildren, Latrice, Lee, Cherlisa, Jahnae, Shakira, and Darren; great-grandchildren, Jershawn, London, and Kaden; and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
