Prayer and Praise October 11, 2014

Father, we praise You for Your goodness and ask for Your special intervention and care for us:

We are grateful for the wonderful fall weather and the adequate moisture.

We praise God for the building expansion coming along and making progress.

We pray for Fred Murray, Lolene Williams, Myra Mosher, Diane Salo, and Jason Williams for health and healing.

We pray for good success for the Benefit Concert at CVC that is raising funds for Adventist Frontier Missions to help the refugees in Iraq.

We pray all will have a fun and safe time at the All Church Campout this year.

We remember those who have lost loved ones and who are coming into the holiday season. We pray they will be comforted by good memories and the hope that God will someday return life to those who have passed away in the Lord and will in time wipe all tears from our eyes. Revelation 21 and 22.

We pray for those attending Celebrate Recovery as they look to Jesus to help them find better ways of living.

We remember our Pastoral Staff in prayer as they lead us in ministry, and bring the word of God to us each week. We also pray for their families.

We remember Eula Key in prayer for comfort at the passing of her Mother last week and for healing after eye surgery this week.

I want to thank everyone for their prayers for my grandmother Marylou and give an update. Praise God, so far she is exceeding expectations. She has good bones, made it through surgery well, and no infections. She is in recovery at Gateway Vista and is hoping to go home as soon as she is able to get around better. I know everyone's prayers have been a mighty tool for God to do his work with Marylou, her doctors and nurses. Thank you Again! Shirley Stout

Subject: A New Home!

To: Piedmont Park Church <piedmontparksda@gmail.com>

What is written below I wrote almost two weeks ago now! With the excitement of finding a house (You read right, we found a house!), moving, unpacking, and shopping the days go by so fast. Thanks for all your prayers and support!

The cool air in the mountains feels so refreshing after spending almost two months in Thailand. We are extremely grateful for the hospitality we received in Thailand. Now we are back in India. I have to admit I felt nervous about coming back to India, but when we landed in India an India switch turned on, and it felt normal to be here.

Garrett is doing great after his surgery! Over time we will monitor any changes that may occur.

I visited with my friend Alicia who has a little girl the same age as Kyra. We chatted about our little girls and all the latest developments. Her little girl now walks. Alicia speaks proudly of her little girl. I pray for her family everyday, that God will reveal Himself to them in a tangible way.

Thank you, God! We found a house! We will be living on the bottom floor of someone's home (which we wanted for language and cultural learning). It is clean and nicely built! The only thing it needs is a kitchen (they are currently working on it), but that won't take long to build. A garden surrounds the house. They told us we could plant! We are excited to finally move into a home. It seems unreal to think we actually have a home.

As soon as settle into our home, we will send you pictures! Currently our internet is too slow to send pictures.

Blessings,
Katrina, Garrett, and Kyra McLarty in India
