

MEMORIES OF YOU BROTHER

It's been the hardest thing to lose you.
You meant so much to me.

But you are in my heart, Brother

And that's where you'll always be.

I know that Heaven called you.

But I wish you could of stayed.

At least the memories I have of you,

They will never fade.

I did not want to lose you.

But you did not go alone.

Because a part of me went with you,

When Heaven called you home.

So just remember one thing.

We are not apart.

You are with me in my memories,

And in my broken heart.

Written by your loving sister, Wanda

A GOOD MAN

A good man never dies--

In worthy deed and prayer

And helpful hands, and honest eyes,

If smiles or tears be there:

Who lives for you and me--

Lives for the world he tries

To help--he lives eternally.

A good man never dies.

Who lives to bravely take

His share of toil and stress,

And, for his weaker fellows' sake,

Makes every burden less,--

He may, at last, seem worn--

Lie fallen--hands and eyes

Folded--yet,

though we mourn and mourn,

A good man never dies.

“He Is Just Away”
We cannot say, we shouldn't say,
That from this earth he's gone.
Yes, his journey here is ended,
but his life continues on.
And though we miss his thoughtful words,
His warm and special charm,
He's in a place where he's at peace,
forever free from harm.
Let's think of him as just away--
he's smiling in the sun.
And there he lives a better life
That's only just begun.
