Marquavis Jzonta' Lucas,

son of Jermaine A. Edwards and Sabrina Lucas Langston, was born March 9, 1994 in Wilson County, North Carolina. His earthly life ended on Monday, May 1, 2023 as he was called to his eternal rest. Along with his father, he was preceded in death by his stepfather, David Langston and his sister, Ashley Langston. Affectionately called 'Marq' by his loving family and friends, he was reared in Wilson County and received his education from the Wilson County Public School System. He attended Elm City Middle School, Ralph L. Fike High School and summer camp in New Bern, North Carolina.

Loving, kind and creative, Marquavis was full of life as he enjoyed the special times spent with family and friends. He loved his family dearly and held a special place in his heart for each one. His son, Mason was his pride and joy as he reveled in playing with him, teaching him and loving him even the more. Marquavis was talented and athletic at heart as he did woodshop and enjoyed canoeing. A jokester at heart, he was the life of any party and could make a joke out of any situation. His favorite pastimes were playing with his X-Box and watching favorite sports. Gone too soon, Marquavis was loved and will be dearly missed but always remembered with joy and adoration.

Precious memories are forever cherished by his son, Mason Kysheem Lucas; his loving and devoted mother, Sabrina Langston; adopted father, Joseph Ruffin; two sisters, Jonysia Ruffin and Aliyah Batts; three brothers, DeVaris Lucas, Justin Batts and Darrell Williams; two step siblings; five half siblings; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, other relatives and many, many friends, including his best friends, Shatera Brooks and Shateva Black and his special friend, Tyasia Bonds.

THE BROKEN CHAIN

Little did we know that this day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we'll do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone;
For part of us went with you,
The day God took you home.
You left us precious memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you,
Your always by our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same.
But, as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.
