The Life Story of

Yvonne

OSLEY DAVIS

Yvonne Osley Davis was born on the divinely destined day of March 5, 1962 in Sulphur, Louisiana to Eva and George Osley Jr. who both have preceded her to rest in the ultimate glory of God. She was a lively and happy child who loved her siblings and parents dearly. As well as a great friend, who you could never forget.

Yvonne departed peacefully at sunrise December 22nd, 2023 after a four year battle with colon cancer. She was a fighter through and through and rose every morning praising God and sending messages of blessings, love, hope, and the promise of salvation through Jesus Christ to loved ones near and far. She was always there to listen with a special way of relating to everyone.

She met her first love Arnold Shelton and conceived her first child at the tender age of fourteen. We all know the story of her presenting Chanin to the world in African tradition after viewing the movie Roots. She was a proud mother from day one. She attended Las Vegas High School. While in High school she played the clarinet. She worked at the Landmark Hotel as well as a Construction Flagger.

During high school she would meet and marry Anthony Davis Sr. whom she conceived two lovely children with. While they would separate some years later they still remained good friends that continued to make great memories together. Some years later she would meet Henry Spencer who she shared memorable times with and conceived two precious children.

Yvonne was a lovable woman of Christian Faith who loved her God. She was a member of True Love Missionary Baptist Church. Her Faith was strong. She knew that with God anything was possible. She loved everybody, She would give to anyone in need or even in want if she had it to give. She was always smiling, looking like a beautiful light on a dark day. Her spirit was amazing and welcoming. She was dedicated to her family. Her love for her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren was unmatched. It was a beautifully wonderful thing to see. She enjoyed hosting social gatherings with family and close friends where she could create lasting memories like no other.

Yvonne is preceded in death by her beloved Mother Eva Gary and her loving Father George Osley Jr. She leaves to cherish her life Husband Tony Davis (sep), Five Siblings, Kathy Tate (sis) Lorretta Osley (sis) Karen Osley (sis) Alvin Osley (bro) Robert Osley (bro). Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, one could ever say.

Perhaps you weren't there at all, but thought of us somehow... Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so very much, for whatever your part.
May God Bless and keep each and every one of you!
