

OBITUARY

Robert Johnson, a man who deeply loved everyone he met, especially his family, has gone to be with our Lord. He was a devoted "Pepaw" to his grandkids, a title he cherished immensely. A diehard rodeo fan, Robert spent half his life immersed in the sport. He rode bareback horses, roped steers, worked as a pickup man, and was renowned as the best rodeo clown and barrel man. His love for entertaining the crowd was evident in every performance. In 1980, Robert joined the Johnson County Sheriff's Posse, where he dedicated four decades of service. His passion for the outdoors, particularly being in an arena or on a horse, defined much of his life. Robert was also an avid hunter, fisherman, and all-around outdoorsman, never missing an opportunity to be outside. He enjoyed playing softball and golf, always striving to perfect his game. Robert retired from Johnson County Electric Coop, where he worked tirelessly in the Texas heat and severe storms as a lineman, ensuring that people had power.

Above all, Robert loved his bride, with whom he was about to celebrate 48 years of marriage. He cherished her deeply and always made sure she knew it.

Robert Johnson's legacy of love, dedication, and passion will forever be remembered by all who knew him.

Survived by his wife, Lisa Johnson; children, Todd Johnson and his wife Reina and Rachael Johnson; sister, Kathy Smith; grandchildren, Brinly Johnson, Landry Johnson, and Haidyn Wallace.

Robert was preceded in death by his parents.

23rd Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:*

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me;

thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
