

Footprints IN THE Sand

One night I dreamed a dream.
As I was walking along the beach
with my Lord.
Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life.
For each scene, I noticed two sets of
footprints in the sand,
One belonging to me and one to my Lord.

After the last scene of my life
flashed before me,
I looked back at the footprints
in the sand.
I noticed that at many times
along the path of my life, especially at the very lowest
and saddest times,
there was only one set of footprints.

This really troubled me, so I asked the Lord about it.
"Lord, you said once I decided to follow you,
You'd walk with me all the way.
But I noticed that during the saddest and most troublesome times of my life,
there was only one set of footprints.
I don't understand why,
when I needed You the most,
You would leave me."

He whispered, "My precious child, I love you and will never leave you Never, ever, during your trials and testings.
When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you."

Precious Memories

Celia Colleen
FAUNTLEROY

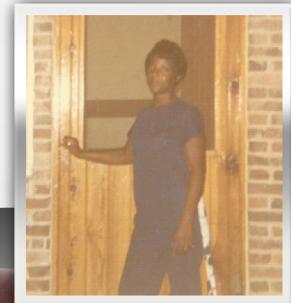

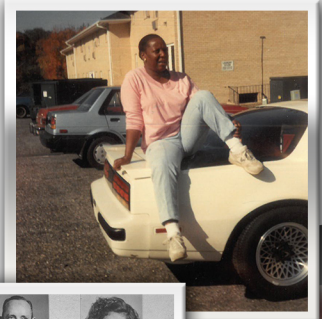

Celia Colleen Lovejoy Fauntleroy was born on September 6, 1934, in Kansas, Atchison. She was one of two children born to Lorenzo Lovejoy and Emma S.E. Lovejoy. As a child, Celia loved basketball and ran track.

Celia matriculated through the public school system as a straight 'A' student, graduating from Potter High School in 1952 in Atchinson, Kansas. She later attended Metropolitan State College of Denver obtaining her Bachelor of Science Degree.

God was always first in Celia's life, and she instilled His love and presence in those who crossed her path. Her servant's heart was evident in all she did. It seemed as though Celia purposefully worked positions that would allow her direct access to be a blessing to those she met. Celia was a "no-nonsense" yet loving woman, and she loved helping, teaching, and working with children. She worked at Fitzsimons for 33 years, East High School for ten years, and Skyland (now Hiawatha) Recreation Center for twelve years. In her spare time, Celia was an avid reader, enjoyed book clubs, watching movies, listening to gospel and R&B music, traveling all over the world, bowling, exercising, swimming, and tending to her yard.

During the last season of her life, her Godchildren, Kevin, Pamela and Gayle were caregivers and they met her every need.

On January 22, 2022, Celia departed this life into the arms of her Heavenly Father. Those left behind to cherish her memory are her Godchildren Kevin M. Tremble, Pamela Tremble, Gayle L. Cummings; her niece, Rhonda Lovejoy of El Paso, TX; nephews, David Lovejoy of Houston, TX and Lorenzo Lovejoy of El Paso, TX.
