

Obituary

Betty Sue McGuirt, 84, of Charlotte, passed away peacefully on October 14, 2022.

Betty Sue was born on January 29, 1938 to the late Willis Johnston McCorkle and Louise Peck McCorkle.

Along with her parents, Betty Sue is preceded in death by her sister, Margaret Jane McCorkle and grandson Benjamin Johnston McGuirt.

She is survived by her three sons, Robert Wilson McGuirt, Jr. (Dawn), Richard Johnston McGuirt (Penny), and David Allen McGuirt (Patty), seven grandchildren, and nine great-grandchildren.

Betty Sue's greatest treasure was her friends and family. She was a lover of dogs, music, and dance and had a wonderful sense of humor. Betty Sue never met a stranger and will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved her. The family is exceedingly grateful for the compassion shown to her by the staff of Morningside Assisted Living of Concord and in her final weeks, Hospice & Palliative Care of Cabarrus County.

A visitation will be held Sunday October 23, 2 p.m. at Mallard Creek Presbyterian Church, followed by a funeral service at 3 p.m. Private burial at Gethsemane Cemetery and Memorial Gardens. Harrisburg Funeral & Cremation is serving the family.

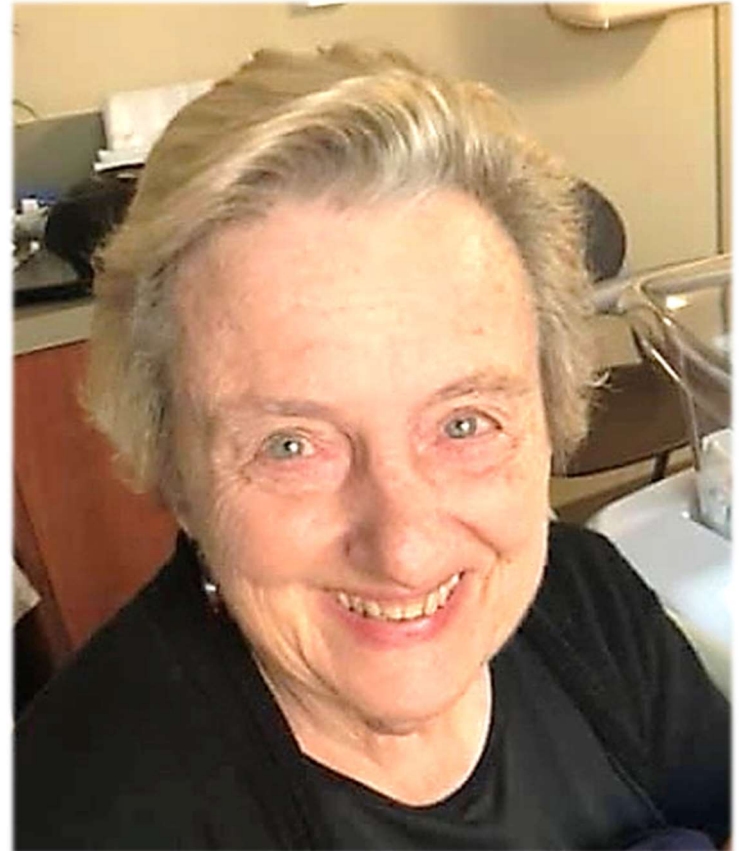

Memorial donations may be made to Alzheimer's Association or Hospice & Palliative Care of Cabarrus County.

For online Condolences and Tribute video, please scan QR Code below:

Harrisburg
FUNERAL & CREMATION

IN LOVING MEMORY

Betty Sue McGuirt

January 29, 1938 ~ October 14, 2022

John 14: 1-6

Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, believe also in Me. In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also. And where I go you know, and the way you know.

Thomas said to Him, "Lord, we do not know where You are going, and how can we know the way?"

Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.

1 Thessalonians 4: 13-18

But I do not want you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you sorrow as others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus.

For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first.

Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord. Therefore comfort one another with these words.

Order of Service

Sunday, October 23, 2022 at 3 p.m.

Mallard Creek Presbyterian Church
Charlotte, North Carolina

Prelude

Processional

Words of Welcome

Call to Worship

Prayer of Invocation

Special Music Ashokan Farwell Avery McGuirt

Scriptural Readings

Sermon

Family Reflections

Hymn I'll Fly Away

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Commendation

LORD's Prayer

Committal and Benediction

Recessional

Postlude