Pastor Corner:

“Unto whomsoever much is given,” the Savior declared, “of him shall be much required” (Luke 12:48). The liberality required of the Hebrews was largely to benefit their own nation; today the work of God extends over all the earth. In the hands of His followers, Christ has placed the treasures of the gospel, and upon them He has laid the responsibility of giving glad tidings of salvation to the world. Surely our obligations are much greater than were those of ancient Israel.

As God’s work extends, calls for help will come more and more frequently. That these calls may be answered, Christians should heed the command, “Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in Mine house” (Malachi 3:10). If professing Christians would faithfully bring to God their tithes and offerings, His treasury would be full.
