If tomorrow starts without me,
and I'm not there to see.
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
all filled with tears for me
I wish so much you wouldn't cry
the way you did today.
While thinking of the many things
we didn't get to say.
I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
and each time that you think of me,
I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
that an angel came and called my name,
And took me by the hand
He said, "This is eternity, and all I've promised you."
Today your life on earth is past,
but here life starts anew.
So when tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart,
for every time you think of me,
I'm right here, in your heart.

Reflections of His Life

Michael Jerome Williams was born July 12, 1951 in Kansas City, Missouri to Michael A. Williams and Sondra M. Williams.

Michael was educated in the Kansas City, MO school district where he graduated from Westport High School, class of 1969. He also received higher education from Penn Valley Community College.

Michael worked with Southwestern Bell from 1972-1996 from which he retired. He then continued his work career with the Kansas City Star and his most recent employer the T-Mobile Event Center.

Michael was raised and baptized at Paseo Baptist Church and a member of St. James United Methodist Church.

Michael enjoyed music of all sorts, especially live concerts. He loved sports especially college basketball, playing pool, a good Western movie, but mostly he loved spending time with family and friends.

Michael departed this life on September 27, 2022. His father, Michael A. Williams, and brother, Darryl Williams preceded him in death.

Michael leaves to cherish his three daughters, Amber, Candice, and Richanda; mother, Sondra M. Williams; three grandchildren, Mia, Christian, and Aspen; close family friend, Carmen Felder, and a host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
