

Message from the Principal

Greetings SVAE Family,

This has been another eventful week. Highlights began with the Annual SVAE Golf tournament last Sunday. Praise God for the generous donations. The money raised will make it possible to help the families in need to continue to have students in SVAE.

Our 1st and 2nd graders had a field trip to the Shenandoah River State Park. Parents and students expressed how much they enjoyed the fieldtrip!

Finally, we give a huge shout out to Dr. Hillary Genus for her chapel on being willing to do what God asks expecting nothing in return! The students were engaged and participating. I pray each of us is willing to do what God requests of us!

I look forward to the Sabbath and the social interaction and rest it brings!

Mr. Hammond

Golf Tournament 2020

I am pleased to tell all of you that the 2020 SVAE Golf Tournament has been a great success! Congratulations to our trophy winners! However, the real winners are SVAE and the students who will benefit from our worthy student fund, the intention of which is to help those who value Christian education and need financial assistance.

I want to thank all of our golfers, sponsors, and volunteers, without whom this event would not be possible. The sponsors are listed to the right. If you are in need of their goods or services, please remember them with your patronage. Though I risk leaving someone out, I want to name some of our helpers:

Candace and Gary Jenkins, Marlene Mitchell, Mauricio Trigo, Monica Grimes, Judah Hammond, Matthew Reedy, Bryan Rinker, Mike Moulder, and a host of SVAE students. Special thanks also to our committee: Davin Hammond, Carrie Heilman, Ryan Knight, and Ryan Crossfield, who provided their leadership and skills to make this happen. Thanks to all!

With gratitude,
Patrick Dauer, Director
