The Obituary

Georgia Mae Boykin began her journey through life on August 22, 1929 in Talladega, Alabama, blessed to the union of George and Willie Bell (Baker) Carr. On Saturday, June 1, 2024, she peacefully departed from her earthly home to her Heavenly home to dwell as one of God's Angels forever.

Georgia, who was affectionally known by her family as Mom, Georgia B, Georgia Mae, Ms. Boyk, Granny, Great-granny had many gifts and skills. She touched many lives with her beautiful spirit and smile. She lived in Steubenville, Ohio where she raised all her children. Georgia had numerous jobs. She worked at the Steubenville Ohio Parks and Recreational Center, as Recreational Aide and Maintenance worker where she literally cut city lawn on a tractor. She also served as a Crossing School Guard.

Georgia was involved in a number of organizations. She was a member of the Federated Women's Club, Sojourner Truth Branch and the Phyllis Wheatly Club, which worked tirelessly to improve their neighborhoods and the lives of their communities.

She was a member for many years at Mt Zion Baptist Church, Steubenville, Ohio where she served as a member of the Spiritulaires Choir and the Women's Ministry until she moved to Dayton Ohio in 2008. She joined Mt Enon Missionary Baptist Church and became a member of the Mass Choir and Wellness Ministry until her health declined. She moved to Columbus Ohio in 2017 where she resided until her death.

Georgia was preceded in death by her husband, Benny Lee Boykin, mother, Willie Bell Baker Carr, father George Carr, brothers Jerry D. Carr, John "Coach" Carr, son-in-law, Henry VaShawn Patrick.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children, Erma Boykin, Deborah Thomas, Leona (Marshall) Gray, Christal (Paul) Johnson, Benny Boykin and Robbie (Christy) Boykin, sister, Mattie Burns and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

The Other Side

*It isn't death – it's glory!
It is not dark – it's light!
It isn't stumbling, groping,
Or even faith – it's sight!
This isn't grief – it's having
My last tear wiped away;
It's sunrise - it's the morning
Of my eternal day!
This isn't eve praying.....
It's speaking face to face;
Listening and glimpsing
The wonders of His grace.
This is the end of pleading
For strength to bear my pain:
Not even pain's dark memory
Will ever live again.
Now did I bear the earth-life
Before I knew this rapture
Of meeting face to face
The One who sought me, save me
And kept me by His Grace!

Benny & Georgia Together Forever

*I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.
Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness.
2 Timothy 4:7-8*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF APPRECIATION

The family of Georgia Mae Boykin wishes to express gratitude to their many loving and devoted friends for their gestures of sympathy, acts of personal interest, and thoughtful concerns during their time of bereavement. Your kindness will be remembered with deep and genuine appreciation. We thank you for the blessing you have been. May the Lord bless you, be gracious unto you and keep you in His everlasting care.

We would also like to extend a special thank you to Pastor J. Cory Pruitt and the Mt Enon Missionary Baptist Church, Dayton, Ohio for their love and support.
