

Grace was born on June 7, 1928 in New England, ND to Albert and Gunda (Boe) Erickson. She grew up on the family farm and graduated from New England High School in 1946. She met and married Archie C. Bach on September 8, 1946 at Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church in New England. To this union two children were born, Bruce and Peggy. Grace enjoyed bowling, playing cards and yard work. Grace was a member of the New England's Homemakers club, Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church, Our Redeemer's Quilters, New England Choir, American Legion Auxiliary, and The New England Senior Citizen Club. She also helped on the voting poles and assisted with the start of the New England Community Grocery Store. Grace is survived by her children, Bruce (Corrine Austin) Bach of Maricopa, AZ, and Peggy Jalbert of Maricopa AZ; grandchildren, Jason (Kimberly) Bach, Krista Bach, Brandon (Connie) Jalbert, Mandy (Ferenc) Tshibangu; great-grandchildren, Conner, Brayden, Makaela, Austin, Victoria, Zackary, Remy, and Grace; and sister, Betty Huntley of Rochester, MN. She is preceded in death by her husband, Archie; parents, Albert and Gunda; and siblings, Iola Braun, Clifford Erickson, Maynard Erickson, Richard Erickson and Darrell Erickson; and son-in-law, Darrell Jalbert.

Remember Me

*Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter
We've shared throughout the years.
Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing that I passed along the way
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning, noon, and night.*
