

seraphim

For the Fallen

In commemoration for those lost in World Wars I & II and those closer to us whom we miss but see no longer.

R. Vaughan Williams (1872-1958) arr. Seraphim

She's like the Swallow

Psalm 23

Chants by R. Mingay-Smith

Richard Nye b. 1967

I saw a New Heaven

G. Butterworth (1885-1916) arr. Seraphim

Is My Team Ploughing

D. Guest (1916-1996)

For the Fallen

E. Elgar (1857-1934)

Nimrod from Enigma Variations

E. Bainton (1880-1956)

And I saw a New Heaven

J. Ireland (1879-1962)

Greater Love hath no Man

Who are these angels?

Seraphim is a professional ensemble of gold standard, composed of six musicians with a wealth of experience from the worlds of church music, opera, and the concert hall at an international level. They are versatile and highly regarded for their expressive music-making and moving interpretations.

They are the resident ensemble at St Mary-at-Hill, London and provide music for the liturgy and appear regularly in the Square Mile Music Series as well as touring all over the world giving masterclasses and concerts.