

Mother

*Have you seen my mother?
You'd know her if you had,
She pretends that all is well
whenever she is sad;*

*Have you seen my mother?
In her, you can confide,
a smiling face, a happy word,
a broken heart inside;*

*Have you seen my mother?
She's quick to give away
all the things that she has saved,
for her rainy day;*

*Have you seen my mother?
When heartache's at your door?
She'll wipe away your tears with love,
and a heart so pure;*

*When I go to heaven,
and my judgement comes to task,
I'll grab an angel by the robe
this question I will ask . . .*

*Have you seen my mother?
You' know her if you had . . .*
