Summary

Please apply the necessary comprehension skills in your Book Report summaries:

- The main character, supporting characters, and setting
- Say what is the author's main idea? In other words, what is the message that he/she is trying to get across to readers.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the character perspective and point of view.
- Retell specific details of information in sequential order.
- Use descriptive words when writing (speaking) about people, places and events.

Read to:

1. Form opinions
2. Identify character traits
3. Detect the emotions of the character/s
4. Identify and discuss text as it relates to his or her experience.
5. Develop appropriate facts and details based on a topic.
6. Distinguish between fact and fantasy

Please include in your summary the main character, supporting characters, setting, and other important information that is relevant to the theme of the book. Let your work flow. Put each new idea in a separate paragraph.
