

Etta B. Cline, 93 of Bowling Green died Friday, May 13, 2016 at the Medical Center.

The Kingsport, TN native was a daughter of the late Howard L. and Jesse L. Armstrong Charlton, wife of the late Royce B. Cline and preceded in death by a son, Carl Cline and granddaughter, Bobbie J. Logsdon. She was a housewife. As she was not a member of one church she was saved at an earlier age and firmly believed in the Lord.

Her survivors include four daughters, Linda Cline, Hilda Logsdon (Jr.), Marie Merideth (Troye), Teresa Whittinghill (Jeff); seven sons, Jimmie Cline (Sheila), Johnny Cline, Danny Cline (Janice), Richard Cline (Cindy), David Cline, Keith Cline (Betty Jo), Steven Cline (Tammy); daughter-in-law, Annette Cline; 25 grandchildren; 23 great grandchildren; two great great grandchildren; one brother, Eddie Charlton (Lorraine); one sister, Ila Dykes; several nieces and nephews.

Funeral service 11 a.m. Monday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green with burial in Oak Forrest Cemetery #1 in Adolphus, KY. Visitation 3-8 p.m. Sunday and 9-11 a.m. Monday at the funeral home.

SEND CONDOLENCES