Precious Memories

Carl Glover Singletary was born on March 6, 1955, in Selma, NC, to the late Robert P. Murchinson and the late Mary Magdalene Singletary.

He received his education in the Johnston County Public School System and graduated from Smithfield Selma Senior High in 1973. Carl held various positions at Sylvia in Selma, NC, and Nortel Network in RTP until his retirement in 2001.

A devoted member of Howells Chapel Church in Selma, NC, Carl had a passion for helping others, as well as cooking and baking cakes for friends and family.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his grandmother, Mrs. Daisy Singletary, grandfather Mr. Sam Singletary, and two nephews, Kenny Sutton and Shantwan Strickland.

Carl is survived by his brother Harvey, also known as Pistol (Sonja) from Atlanta, GA, and his sister Jan Oakley from Selma, NC. He leaves behind four special nieces: Toya and Tracie from Atlanta, GA, Angela Sutton from Smithfield, NC, and Tarnishia Allen (Jamar) from Selma, NC. He is also remembered by his nephews, Shantwan Oakley, Lamar Strickland, Terry Oakley and Shavon Oakley; two grandnephews, Cameron Head, and Jamison Dmer; a host of relatives and friends; and two dear friends, Faye Storey and Maurice McMullen.
