Merril was born March 4, 1945 in Hebron, the daughter of Emil and Katherine (Flemmer) Sailer. She attended school in Hebron and went on to attend college where she received her bachelor's degree in teaching. After a lengthy career in teaching, she retired and continued to make her home in Hebron. Merrill was a member of the Methodist Church.

Merril was preceded in death by her father, Emil Sailer; and mother, Katherine (Sailer) Will.

She is survived by her sisters, Lillian Lyng, Jannette Douglas, Violet Harris; brother, James Sailer; several nieces, nephews and great-nieces and great-nephews.

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God has chosen for me.

I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've found now peace at the end of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
don't lengthen your time with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now – He set me free.

Merril Sailer
