

Acknowledgement

We are most grateful for the gift of friends like you. Who have been so kind and thoughtful during this time of sorrow. Thank you to Shalom Hospice and Durham Copany workers. Your prayers, visits, calls, flowers, and every act of kindness, have given us strength and inspiration. It's our prayer that God guides, protect, and love each and every one of you.

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Reflections of Her Life

Traci L. Wright was born December 16, 1969 in Kansas City, Missouri to Dorothy Walker and Bobby Guidry (Rayne Louisiana). She was preceded in death by her father, Bobby Guidry and her husband, Tyrone Wright.

Traci was a lifetime resident of Kansas City, Missouri. She accepted Christ at an early age. She attended Bethel Baptist Church.

Traci was the youngest of four children. She made her mark wherever she went. She did not birth any natural children, but she was a confidant and a beacon of light to many she came in contact with. She was the life of every party and always brought joy to that space. Traci had a phenomenal relationship with all her nieces and nephews.

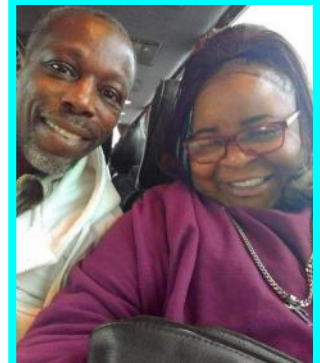

Traci was a professional driver and drove for multiple bus companies, and school services for multiple years, such as, Leasing First Student Parkville, Missouri. Most recently, the Durham bus company.

She departed this life on Wednesday, March 22, 2023.

Traci leaves to cherish her memories to her fiancé Earnest Moore; her mother Dorothy Walker; her two sisters Linda Lecoure (Joseph); and Rhonda Sudduth; one brother Glenn Winfield (Erica); and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.
