My Other Mother

You may not have given me the gift of life,
But life gave me the gift of you,
The bond and closeness between us is eternal,
Thank you for loving, caring and spoiling me as your own,
Thank you for all the times you were there,
You have been my mentor, my helper, my shelter
and my shoulder to lean on,
Always there to guide me and teach me
life lessons you made my life better,
I don't know who or what my life would've became if I didn't have you,
I am blessed and I'm forever grateful to have had you in my life,
Selfishly I rather have you here
but God knows best,
So I'll just cherish and hold on to the memories we shared,
I will keep you close to my heart,
As long as you are there
I know we will never be apart.

I love you, Forever and Always
Your Child
Kiah

To My Sister...

I'm blessed to have called you sister,
I also called you friend.
You've loved me unconditionally,
And stood with me through thick and thin.
You've shared my joys and sorrows,
My laughter and my tears.
You've been my inspiration,
As we grew up through the years.
When we were little children,
We laughed and played together;
Then growing up you stood by me,
Through good and stormy weather.
There's something God has given us,
That's more than family;
He's placed a love for you, my Sister,
Deep down in the heart of me.
We love and will love miss you!

In Loving Memory

of a Special

Sister

The day you left and gained your wings,
my heart broke in two.
I wish you could of stayed with me,
but heaven needed you.
You left me with memories
and I love you dearly still.
No matter how much time goes by you know I always will.
You were a very special person.
With kindness in your heart and the love we had together grows stronger now we're apart.
I know I cannot bring you back
although I wish it everyday.
But a piece of me went with you
the day you went away.

I Love you, Marilyn

Acknowledgment

LOVED BEYOND WORDS. MISSED BEYOND MEASURE.

Life Story

Sheila Rae Robinson was born April 4, 1958 to the late Benjamin and Juanita Robinson in Philadelphia, PA. She gained her wings and departed from this life on March 25, 2024 at Penn Presbyterian Medical Center. Sheila grew up in a Christian home and joined Thankful Baptist Church, in Philadelphia, at a very young age. Later in her life she attended the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, with her sister Cheryl, until she was no longer able to do so.

Sheila was educated in the Public School System of Philadelphia County, PA and graduated from Murrell Dobbins Vocational Technical High School in 1976. She continued her education to receive an Associate's Degree in Applied Science from Community College of Philadelphia in 1981, and a Bachelor's of Business Administration from Temple University in 1999.

Sheila was employed at Temple University Hospital for many years. Her very first job, was that of a Volunteer Candy Striper while she was in Junior High and High School. After graduating from Community College of Philadelphia Sheila returned to Temple to work as an Information Clerk and later as a Hospital Telephone Operator. In 2007 after over 20 years of dedicated service, Sheila retired due to illness.

Sheila was a truly kind, caring and soft-spoken person who was very patient, slow to anger and loved her family. She was also a very meticulous person, she took pride in her appearance, had a million-dollar smile, and a strong affinity for academia; especially reading and math.

Sheila was a die-hard sports fan! All sports! She was also a stellar athlete, she loved Tennis and Basketball, and played both for Murrell Dobbins, when she was in High School and beyond.

Sheila also loved photography, seafood and traveling especially to Maryland and Disney World.

In the mid-1990's, Sheila was diagnosed with Sarcoidosis and as a result lost her eyesight. Despite the disability, she NEVER once complained, she NEVER gave up and she NEVER lost her faith. Instead, she channeled her energy into being the most independent person that she could be and she did it with grace.

On September 7, 1991, Sheila gave birth to her only child, Jordan Fitzgerald Robinson, who preceded her in death, days after his birth, due to complications.

Sheila leaves to cherish her memory: her four brothers Keith Robinson (Michelle) and Christopher Robinson (Helena) of Philadelphia, PA, Darnell Robinson (Zephne) of Highland Springs, VA, and Lonnell Robinson of Centerton, Arkansas; her four sisters Delores DeShields, Sandra Wong, Margo Robinson and Marilyn Robinson of Philadelphia, PA; three aunts: Henrietta Mapp of Philadelphia, PA, Thelma Robinson of Middletown, New York and Mae Robinson of Westover, Maryland; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Her parents, her oldest brother Humphrey (AKA Sonny), her sister Cheryl, her sister Marsha and her sister-in-law Mary also preceded her in death. She will be truly missed!

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family
