was born January 11, 1955, to Martha (Kostelecky) and Irvin Kadrmas. He grew up on a farm near Killdeer and attended Killdeer School, graduating in 1973. He married Connie Faiman in April of 1976. They were blessed with two children Rachel and Elizabeth. In August of 1984, he married Annette Grosser and together they had one child, Trevor. He gained two stepchildren Beth and Michael. In December of 1992 he married Paulette Fettig Anton, whom he has been married to for 28 years. From this marriage he gained a step-daughter, Anita. Bruce lived in Dickinson most of his life. He and Paulette moved to Bowman in 2009. Within the last year, they settled in their retirement home in Reeder, as they would say. Bruce worked many different jobs throughout his life. He worked at the cheese plant and drove taxi for 4-5 years. He had his own lawn company for 30 years, did small engine maintenance for 9 years, and also worked at Scranton Equity for the last 4 years. He enjoyed watching his grandchildren's sporting events, bowling, darts, and spending time with his family. He was a big people person. We will miss seeing him interact with his family and friends. He is survived by his wife, Paulette Anton (Fettig) Kadrmas of Reeder; daughters Rachel (Adam) Gillen and Elizabeth (Ryan) Olheiser both of Dickinson; son Trevor (Alicia) Kadrmas of Dickinson; stepchildren Anita Anton of Jamestown, Michael Tormaschy of Windermere, FL, and Beth (Wade) Schmitt of Dickinson; 14 grandchildren Trenton, Taelen, Elijah, Makenna, Sean, Laine, Reese, Ava, Addisyn, Madison, Grant, Adlee, Kiesyn, and Daxtin; sisters-in-law Ann Hagens of Richfield, MN and Josie (Gil) Hesier of Belfield; 9 siblings Beverly J. The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie
down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters:

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me

in the paths of righteousness

For his name's sake..

Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me

in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.. Surely Goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever...
