

Your Mother Is Always With You

She's the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street, she's the smell of certain foods you remember, flowers you pick, the fragrance of life itself. She's the cool hand on your brow when you're not feeling well, she's your breath in the air on a cold winter's day. She is the sound of the rain that lulls you to sleep, the colors of a rainbow, she is Christmas morning. Your mother lives inside your laughter. She's the place you came from, your first home, and she's the map you follow with every step you take.

In loving Memory

Mom,
Some people come into our lives and quickly go. Some people stay for a while, and give us a deeper understanding of what is truly important in this life. They touch our souls. We gain strength from the footprints they have left on our hearts, and we will never be the same. Thanks for touching, enriching, and blessing the lives of so many. Thanks for exemplifying throughout your life steadfast faith, unwavering fortitude, unfaltering patience, gentleness, meekness, and the pure love of Christ. I love you more than words can express and will miss you.

Diane

Mom,
I am so blessed to have been raised by you. You filled our home with beauty, good food, fun, and above all, love. I so appreciate the lessons you taught simply by being you. Most poignantly is that people are most important and that family tops the list. Undergirding it all is your love for the Savior and your desire to love as He loves. I love you, Mom! Thank you for your unfaltering love and the example you set.

Susan

We send our love and thanks across all time and space until we meet again beyond that Heavenly veil.
