Key Concept for Spiritual Growth

Satan's greatest deception is the illusion that we do not need God and are not dependent on Him. The ideas of evolution and of the immortality of the soul illustrate this deception, and they may lead to worship of the creatures instead of worshiping the Creator. Our best defense against these illusions of our independence is to be dependent only on the Lord and to keep Him before us continually, placing our everyday decisions under His full control and implementing them according to His will. Then we must listen and wait for His direction and help.

Trusting God I Really Want to Change

It is never too late to change and see your destiny fulfilled.

Two men in the Bible who were headed in the wrong direction are Jacob and Paul. But as God worked in their lives, they both changed, and even though they made many serious mistakes, they ended up with amazing lives.

Being transformed into the image of Christ is the greatest change of all and it traverses many seasons in our life, but each one is truly beautiful in its time. God has a program designed especially for each of us.

We can't succeed without God. He wants us to ask for and receive His help in all that we do. Only God can truly change us, because it is an inside job.

We will have to trade our independence for dependence on Jesus if we ever want to have true success.

If you want to change, then God sees that and He is pleased! Now the next step is trusting Him to do what needs to be done and to give you the strength you need to change. All too often, when we want to change, we try to do it while totally leaving God out of the entire process. It won't work!

Grace is God's favor and enabling power. James 4:6 says, "God gives us more and more grace." . . . verse 2: You do not have because you do not ask it of God." That is so simple! ASK! Ask and receive "that your joy may be full and complete" John 16:24. Trusting God's Word is equivalent to trusting Him!
