Groups are starting to meet at the church and we also have external groups hiring rooms. Please do not enter any rooms without checking first that they will be free.

All meetings at church should be pre booked please so that they can be entered into the diary.

The men's group will have their First Friday meeting on October 1. We are supporting different pubs in the town, so will be at The Cock in Norwich Street from 7.30pm. They don't serve food but we can take in takeaway food which we can organise when we get there. For more information please speak to Ian Clarke - ian.clarke@archant.co.uk or ring 07711 446055.

Dereham Town Pastors are beginning a new training programme on Saturday 16th October for old and new volunteers. We have spaces and would warmly welcome any more people who want to join us!!

We are a group of Christian adults from several local churches who go out on the streets on Friday afternoon and evenings. We seek to be a friend to the lonely and a positive influence to youngsters and adults we meet.

If you are interested please contact our Teams Co-ordinator Sandy Taylor at sandyjtaylor@icloud.com

Money Course

A free, 3 week course which helps to review finances and teaches a simple system to manage money well. It is very non-threatening, you won't be asked to discuss your individual finances with anyone else, but you will have the opportunity to seek confidential further support if necessary.

There are 2 courses coming up -

Virtual meetings on Monday evenings - October 4th, 11th, 18th.

Face to face meetings at DBC on Thursdays - 25th Nov, 2nd and 9th December

Contact Morgan on 07514 488100 or morgancockbill@capuk.org to book your place.
