

Hope Strength

In Loving Memory
CELEBRATING A LIFE

A Celebration of Life

Stockham Family Funeral Home
McPherson, Kansas

Sunday, January 8, 2023, at 2:00 PM

Officiant

Pastor Dan Cate

Musical Selections

Prelude Video Tribute:

"Jealous of the Angels" by Donna Taggart

"Scars in Heaven" by Casting Crowns

"Mother" by Michael Buble

"Go Rest High on that Mountain" by Vince Gill

Service:

"How Great Thou Art" by Carrie Underwood

"Song of Farewell" by Chris Brunell

Casket Bearers

Cory Pearson Christian Pearson

Zach Pearson Hunter Liese

Final Resting Place

Elmhurst Cemetery ~ Guymon, Oklahoma

Monday, January 9, 2023, at 1:00 PM

Memorial Donations

Memorial donations are suggested to Calvary Baptist Church or the Alzheimer's Association.

Appreciation

Jean's family wishes to express their sincere appreciation for your prayers and kindness, evidenced in thought and deed, and your presence at this service.

Stockham Family Funeral Home

In Loving Memory
Jean Elaine Stephens
April 28, 1937 ~ December 29, 2022

A Celebration of Life
Jean Elaine Stephens

Jean Elaine Stephens, 85, of McPherson, KS and formerly of Guymon, OK, passed away peacefully on Thursday, December 29, 2022, with her family by her side at The Cedars, McPherson. She was a homemaker, and also, along with her husband, owned and operated Owens Steamway Carpet Cleaning for 26 years.

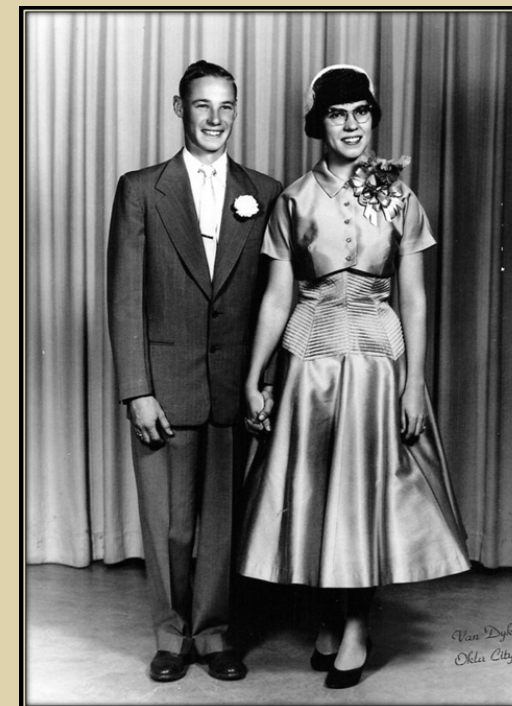

Jean was born on April 28, 1937, in Grants Pass, OR, the daughter of Harry Russell and Emily Katherine (Shorb) Brown. She graduated as valedictorian from Hardesty High School in Hardesty, OK. She attended Oklahoma University School of Nursing. On October 25, 1956, Jean was united in marriage to Owen Clouse Stephens in Oklahoma City, OK. He preceded her in death on July 3, 2014.

Jean was a loving and devoted wife, mother, and grandmother. She enjoyed many activities and hobbies, including riding motorcycles and camping in the mountains, fast cars, playing the piano, bowling, ceramics, cooking for her family, and growing flowers. She also loved to travel. Her favorite treat was ice cream. Any trip, regardless of how short or long, had to include a stop at an ice cream store, both coming and going!

Jean was a member of the National 600 Bowling Club and permanent member of the Women's International Bowling Congress. She was also a member of Ambucs and the Delphinium Garden Club in Guymon, Oklahoma.

She is survived by her two daughters, Catheryn "Cathy" McEachern of McPherson, KS and Linda Shoemaker of Oklahoma City, OK; daughter-in-law, Janis Murphy of Sylvania, KS; sisters-in-law, Lamanda Hammonds of Temple, TX and Novella Brown of Oklahoma City, OK; brothers-in-law, Tom Stephens (Phyllis) of Hardesty, OK and Melvin Stephens (Lou Ella) of Plainview, TX; eight grandchildren, Cory Pearson (Traci), Chris Pearson, Asher McEachern-Stains (Cassidy), Denise Spallo (Phil), Curtis Belvin, Nichole Myers (Adam), Jamie Crane (Kerry), and Dana Sandoval (Carlos); 17 great-grandchildren, Katie, Sophia, & Vinnie Spallo, Zachary, Christian, Grace, & Gabriel Pearson, Andrew, Lantz, & Rylan Myers, Hunter, Jordan, & Jadyn Liese, Mia Delly, Gauge, Mika, & Clairra Belvin.

She was preceded in death by her parents; parents-in-law, Clouse & Flora Stephens; son, Don Allen Stephens; sons-in-law, Donnie Shoemaker and Joe McEachern; brothers, Dewayne and Bill Brown; and grandson, Joey McEachern.

Loving Memory Honor