Life & Family

Brother Timothy "Mr. Shouty" Lee Hughes Sr. was born August 5th, 1980. He was the sixth child of seven children born to the late Betty Ann Carter and James Kenneth Hughes Sr., of Nashville, Tennessee. Timothy attended Pearl Cohn High School where he was an elite member of the marching band. At his family church, Jesus Temple House of the Lord, he mastered the drums and profoundly helped create the Shouting Angels and the Everlasting Soldiers. He is a founder of Kingdom Minded Rap Ministries and has traveled the world with his ministry of gospel rap. He had a mission to save souls through his music. He was a phenomenal lyricist and writer who has produced well over 200 songs. He was known for his humor and ability to lead someone to Christ with God at the helm.

On April 10th, 2010, he was united in Holy Matrimony to Mrs. Toi D. Birdsong-Hughes, of Nashville, Tennessee, and to that union three children were united, ToiMichael, ToiRe, and Timothy.

He was a faithful and dedicated father, son, friend, and uncle. He did all he could with all he had even if he only had two cents ~he made a way. He never ceased to do the impossible.

Mr. Shouty is preceded in death by his mother, Betty Ann Carter; his father, James Kenneth Hughes Sr.; and his sister, Khahala Pearson.

Tribute

Mr. Shouty lived an extraordinarily impactful life. He was a natural born leader who sought out to inspire and empower our youth. Not a day would go by that he would not spread the word of the Lord and take the time to pray and lend a helping hand of love to all who was in his presence. Mr. Shouty was musically inclined and knew he had a purpose to create music that would motivate and spark change in people. He was a marvelously spectacular chef who truly cooked from his soul. Mr. Shouty invented a variety of exquisite dishes that so many of us had the pleasure of enjoying. Mr. Shouty did what needed to be done and will forever be L.E.G.E.N.D.ary.
