Obituary

James Knox III was born August 25th, 1972 to James Knox Jr and Norma Jean Green in Los Angeles, Ca. James came to know the lord while being raised by his grandmother Louise McGilvary. He received his education through the Compton Unified School District where he received his GED after high school.

James, also known to close family and friends as "Big James", had a very genuine soul and to anyone that knew him and his kind spirit would say he was honest, straightforward, respectful and always had a giving heart. He was always willing to help anyone in need. He loved his siblings and his family and always had their best interest at heart. At the very young age of 15yrs he inherited a bonus family as he would say, who took him in as their own and watched him grow into a upstanding gentleman the man everyone had grown to love. With a wonderful testimony to life he found Christ again and would spend his early mornings reading the Word and Praying before he would start his day. James fell in love with the idea of becoming a truck driver where he learned to drive diesel trucks, which sent him on the path the lord led him to be. He then went on to purchase his own diesel truck and became employed for the Coca-Cola company where he was always commemorated for his great personality, dedication and hard work. James loved talking to his friends about his favorite football team, or any other team he knew would win or lose. He was such a beacon of light and always remained grounded by his faith.

His Mother Norma Jean Green, Father James Knox Jr, Grandmother Louise McGilvary, Sister Lawanda Banks, Brother Tom Knox Bonus mother Annie Mae Mcmeans Manning all preceded him in death. On June 5th, 2024 the Lord called for his angel. He leaves to cherish his two children Jamesha Knox and James Knox IV two grandchildren Zaiden Knox and Na,Zyrah Barnes, three brothers Robert Green, Ralph Watts, and Herman Knox, one sister Jimmie Knox Walton, sister in law Dorisila Green, brother in law Dominique Walton, three nieces Breontanay Watts, Shawanda Banks, Kera Green Two Nephews Robert Green Jr, Jamari Walton and five bonus sisters and brothers Mack, Sheila, Robert, Joseph and Rosie Manning and a host of great nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

IN MEMORY OF MY DAD

If I could write a story it would be the greatest ever told
Of a kind and loving father who had a heart of gold. If I could write a million pages but still be unable to say just how much I love and miss him Every single day. I will remember all he taught me, I'm hurt but won't be sad because he'll send me Down the answers and he'll always be MY DAD

Your Daughter Jamesha Knox

A WORD TO MY FATHER

With heavy hearts, we say goodbye, To a man whose spirit soared so high. Dad, Your wisdom, love, and gentle ways, Have left a mark that always stays. Though you have gone, your legacy lives, In every life your kindness gives. Rest in peace, to my dad who to all was an incredible friend, sibling, and an overall stand up human being in general Your journey now has reached its end. But in our hearts, you'll always be, A guiding star, eternally.

Your Son James D. Knox IV

Acknowledgements

To my family

You'll need to focus on my unfailing love for you as you face troubles in your life that tempt you to doubt. I was your GOD yesterday. Today and forever. I will care for you until the very end. Until you see me face to face. I am with you. Rejoice in that alone.

There is no need to worry about the future if I'm the one leading and guiding you. Every obstacle you face is driving you to me and making you more aware of your need to be dependent on me for your hopes and desires. Don't allow your difficulties to cause you to doubt; just rest in your dependence upon me. I will provide you with all you need.

All you need is me.

Don't be anxious, just pray and talk to me about your deepest desires and the hurts of your heart. As you trust me to heal your wounds and answer your prayers, stand firm in your faith and hold on to the hope I give you. Allow my peace to comfort you as you wait upon me to overwhelm you with great things. And continually filled with joy.
