In peace I will lie down and sleep,
for you alone, LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Marvin Dean McClendon

Marvin Dean "Stick Man" McClendon was born June 10, 1948 in Savannah, Georgia to A.C. McClendon Sr. and Margaret Temple McClendon.

On May 4, 2020, God called him to rest. He was preceded in death by his father, A.C. McClendon, Sr., and his mother, Margaret Temple McClendon and his nephew Antonio McClendon.

Those left to cherish his memory are his daughter, Wanda Jackson, his brother, A.C. McClendon, Jr., his twin sister Margie Prescott, two grandchildren Kelvin Stoney, Jr., and Chase Jackson.

Marvin "Stick Man" McClendon made history playing in the first integrated basketball team at Beach High School. The team went on to win the Georgia State Championship in 1967. He was also inducted into the Beach High School Basketball Hall of Fame. There is a banner hanging at the school today marking this significant event. We hope that he continues to feel "fabulous" in his afterlife.
