

Acknowledgement

We, the family wish to thank everyone for their love, support and kindness during our time of bereavement. Knowing that one day, everyone will cross that threshold. It is comforting to know that in our time of need that there are special people like you.

"A Farewell To Shay"

A life may have been lost,
but the love always remains
We'll serenade your memory
until we meet again.
Tears would only be made of laughter,
We wouldn't cry
hearing your name
Had God left you here with us,
And saved us from the pain.
But we don't rule our destiny,
He above us runs our trial
Which means to cross paths once again,
we both must wait awhile.
In every weathered gust of wind,
we'll feel your essence and pray.
A spirit meets eternal peace,
Our daughter and sister
Shay.

Reflections of Her Life

Ms. Shalonda "Shay" Morgan was born February 19, 1996 in Kansas City, MO to Donna Morgan and Curtis Fisher, Sr. She was born the sixth child in a blended family of 3 sisters and 2 brothers.

Shay was a lifelong resident of Kansas City, MO and attended the Kansas City Public School District. She was a graduate of Allen Village Charter School, class of 2014. After high school she attended one year of school at Penn Valley Community College.

She was a very hard worker and held many different jobs in the warehouse industry. Although she never had any children of her own, she loved children and was patiently awaiting the births of two great nephews; baby Gio and baby Ronnell.

She enjoyed hanging out, eating, and drinking with her friends and family.

Shalonda departed this life on October 6, 2023 at University Health at Truman Medical Center. Her sister Lakishia Fisher preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her memories her parents; Donna Morgan and Curtis Fisher. Two sisters; Stephanie Rentie (Kevin) and Angela Morgan, two brothers; Curtis Fisher, Jr. and Darrell Fisher. Her nieces; Ronniesha and Kearra and nephews; Ronnell and DeAngelo. Three uncles; Titus, Jimmy and Anthony. Aunts; Lavonda, Theresa and Linda, and a host of cousins and friends.
