

Prayer and Praise

April 4 thru April 11, 2014

April 7

You are faithful in praying for those suffering with Cancer and those affected by it. Doug Sanders keeps on living in pain, and he is grateful for every day of life. Today is World Cancer Day. Let's pause to reflect on those suffering with the dread disease and also those left behind, grieving but carrying on. May God specially bless you and your family for your compassion and empathy. Doug is quite amazing. He was slated to die last week. He has a strong will to live. I think of the woman with the issue of blood... doctors had given up on her. We are still praying for that miracle.

From: Betty Jacobs. (Her son-Doug Sanders has cancer and is in hospice care).

Cards of encouragement for Doug Sanders and his wife Michelle, or Betty and Rich Jacobs, or Chris Sanders may be mailed to:
