

Active Pallbearers

Reggie Williams
LaAnthony Daniels
Quin Johnson

Rodney Johnson
Mark Johnson
Micheal Malone

Honary Pallbearers

Julius Daniels
Chris Leadon

Rayford Jackson Jr.
Antoine Brigham

Acknowledgements

The family of Evelyn Jackson extends our sincere gratitude for all the prayers, phone calls, visits, words of comfort, and overwhelming support during this transition. We pray that God will continually bestow upon you his many blessings and favor.

The Jackson Family

Program compiled by:
Vivianne McGowan, Vivid Designs
903-574-6534

Services Entrusted to London's Mortuary
"Providing A Dignified and Comforting Memory"
176 CR 2503 Mineloa, TX
www.londonsmortuary.com
Robin London, Funeral Director/Embalmer/Owner
Rodney London, Owner/Manager
903-569-5404 / 430-235-9932

Aunt

HONEY

Celebrating the Life & Legacy of

MOTHER EVELYN FONZA JACKSON

FIRST BREATH: 11/7/1932

LAST SMILE: 2/19/2023

FUNERAL SERVICES: FEBRUARY 25, 2023 ~ 12:00 P.M.

SMITH TEMPLE C.O.G.I.C 2400 WALTON RD. TYLER, TX. 75701

Dr. S.L. Curry Jr., Officiant

Dr. Rodney L. Atkins, Eulogist

Evelyn Louise Fonza-Jackson was born to the parentage of Lewis and Arnie Fonza on November 7, 1932 in Troup, Texas. She attended the Central High School system. In 1954, she united in matrimony to Odell Jackson, and to this union three loving spirited offspring were born.

Evelyn joined Mary Memorial COGIC at early age, and later united with Victory Temple COGIC in 1999, where she served in many capacities, Sunday school teacher, Secretary of Prayer and Bible band, Sermonic songstress, Usher, and a loyal choir representative. She was also the head of "Rose Garden hospitality department of Texas (Northeast Jurisdiction #2).

Throughout her work career she took pride in her job as a house-keeper and cook for many years. In addition, she provided care for numerous children serving as their nanny.

She left a memorable impression on most for her determined mind-set, witty quotes, phrases, and her will to serve others. Mrs. Jackson often said, "I am hopping, but I ain't stopping, or I may be creeping, but I ain't weeping."

She transitioned February 19, 2023 in her residence surrounded by her loving family. Uniting with siblings Eugene Fonza, Charlie Louis Fonza, Ray Milton Fonza, Johnny Fonza, Merlean Davis, Ella Mae Nelson, Beverly Howard, JoAnn Polk, and Juanita Fonza.

Left to cherish her memory are her children Rayford & Thelma Jackson Sr., Barbara & Jerry Daniels, and Amelia Davis. (Sibling)- Annie Malone Washington (Sister in laws)- Ida B. Jackson, Gloria Jackson, Clara Mae Whitaker, Alice Jackson, and Juanita Cooper. (nine grandchildren, fifteen great grandchildren, two great great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

OBITUARY

Celebrating the Life and Legacy of Mother Evelyn Jackson

Officiant.....	Dr. S.L. Curry Jr.
Processional.....	Ministers and Family Celebration Choir/Sis Erica Rider - "In Everything Give Thanks"
Old Testament.....	Elder Nolen Ross
New Testament.....	Elder Alfred Nelson
Prayer.....	Pastor Nathaniel Howard Jr.
Solo.....	Monica Loggins "His Eye Is on the Sparrow"
Resolution.....	Mother Emmie Ellis Victory Temple Church if God in Church/New Zion Baptist Church
Special Remarks.....	Bishop David R. Houston, Smith Temple Church of God in Christ Sis. Adeline Dailey, (Chat and Chew), Victory Temple Church of God in Christ
Remarks.....	(2 Limits)
Selection.....	Celebration Choir "God Is My Everything"
Acknowledgments.....	Missionary Quin Ette Copper
Solo.....	Missionary Bessie Nelson "If I had Wings"
Eulogist.....	Superintendent Rodney Lamar Aktins Victory Temple C.O.G.I.C 1700 N. Moore Tyler, TX. 75702
Final Tribute	London's Mortuary Funeral Services Staff

ORDER OF SERVICE