

OBITUARY

Kenny passed away on Sunday, October 20, 2024, in Cleburne. He was born on December 23, 1960, to Harvey and Mary (Crow) Clark. Throughout his career, Kenny worked diligently as a machinist for Crow Precision Components. Kenny was a devoted fan of the Dallas Cowboys and cherished spending time camping and traveling to Galveston. He had a passion for visiting flea markets and antique stores and enjoyed listening to rock-and-roll and country music. Kenny's legacy will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.

He is survived by his wife, Denise Peters; daughters, Shelby Clark and Savannah Clark; son, Dallas Webb; and grandchildren, Landon Clark and Amelia Barr. He is also survived by his brothers, Jimmy Cox, Jerry Clark, Kimm Clark and wife Danette Clark, and John Clark, as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins who he loved dearly.

Kenny Clark

God Saw You Growing Tired

*God saw you growing tired,
and a cure was not to be;
So He wrapped His arms around you and whispered, "Come With Me".
With tearful eyes we watched you,
and saw you pass away,
and though we loved you dearly,
we could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
hard working hands at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*
