

Acknowledgements

The family of Laura Jamison would like to take this time to express our deepest appreciation for the calls, words of comfort, prayers, visits, flowers, food, and the list goes on. No expression was too small, and no expression shall soon be forgotten. You are truly an angel who God sent our way, especially during this time.

God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be;

So He put his arms around you
and whispered,

“Come with Me.”

With tearful eyes we watched you suffer
and saw you fade away.

Although we LOVED YOU DEARLY
we could not make you stay.

A GOLDEN HEART stopped beating hard working hands at rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us

He only takes the best!

Reflections of Life

In profound sorrow, we announce the forthcoming memorial services and ceremonies that will honor the vibrant life of Laura Jamison, a beacon of light in Columbus, Ohio, for over four decades.

Born in Charlotte, NC, on June 30, 1955, Laura made a remarkable impact on those around her through her unwavering commitment to helping others. Working tirelessly as an STNA in the medical industry, she brought compassion and care to those in need.

Described as a social butterfly and a spontaneous soul, Laura's infectious spirit brightened the lives of all who crossed her path. Her humor, outgoing nature, and loving demeanor endeared her to many, creating lasting bonds that will never falter. With a heart filled with love, forgiveness, and a deep connection to her faith, Laura's presence will be deeply missed by those who knew her best. She leaves behind cherished memories, echoing her kind nature and the profound impact she had on all fortunate enough to know her.

In her passing, Laura reunites with her beloved mother, Jeanette Chenault; father, James Jamison; son, Maurice Sr.; and brother, Lonnie Jamison. Their spirits now intertwined in eternal peace.

Laura Jamison will forever reside in the hearts of those who knew her, her legacy enduring in the cherished memories shared by many. May her soul find peace in the eternal embrace of our creator, her spirit forever present in the lives she touched.
