

FINAL HARVEST

He was bound to the land from the day of his birth
His roots anchored deep in the fertile earth
Nurtured, sustained, by the soil he grew
And his life, like his furrows, ran straight and true.
In faith, each spring, he planted the seeds
In hope, to reap his family's needs
With patience, he waited for the harvest to come
To gather the fruits of his labor home.
Ever turning seasons, the years sped past
Till the final harvest came at last
Then claimed anew by beloved sod
He was gathered home to be with God.

Adam Leintz, 101, of Bismarck, passed away August 23, 2018 at Missouri Slope Lutheran Care Center, Bismarck.

Adam Leintz was born October 24, 1916 to Felix and Braxada (Volk) Leintz in Brisbane, ND. He was raised and educated in the Brisbane area. On May 31, 1938 he married Ella Angela Fergel at St. Gertrude Catholic Church in Raleigh, ND. They lived in Carson and he worked on the railroad and built bridges for WPA for a short time before they moved to their farm and ranch south of Raleigh.

Adam and Ella lived and worked on what became their family farm for the next 45 years. During this time they raised Hereford and Angus cattle, hay, corn, and grain crops. They enjoyed square dancing with their friends at the old country school, or as far away as Amidon, ND. 4-H was major in Adam's life; both as a parent and grandparent of 4-H members and as a leader. When St. Gertrude's had church fall bazaars, it was Adam's job to drive his cattle truck to pick up bingo prizes. Branding and working cattle was both a chore and entertainment for Adam. Neighbors and relatives would get together to make light work of a big job at the farm and he would return the favor. Adam enjoyed fishing for "cats" on the Cannonball River. He was very active in several organizations during his life including the Catholic Foresters, St. Gertrude Church Council, Carson ASCS office and School Board Wade District.

When Adam and Ella retired to Mandan, they were active in church activities, playing cards and visiting with their neighbors, keeping up an enviable yard, and growing an immense garden. Nothing gave Adam more pleasure than sharing the fruits of his labor with family and friends.

Adam will be deeply missed by his daughters, Mary Lou (Lynn) Bueling of Fargo, ND, Angie (Martin) Schaff of Mandan, ND, Sharon (Duane) Schwab of Mandan ND; son, Mike (Sharon) of Raleigh, ND; 16 grandchildren, Shari, Michael, Bonnie, Robert, Jeffrey, Brandon, Clint, Kurt, Kelly, Tammy, Julie, Robin, Kim, Thomas E., Troy, and Travis; 38 great-grandchildren; 8 great-great-grandchildren; sister, Rose Shobe, of Gooding, ID; and sister-in-law, Janet Leintz of Orange, CA.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Ella; grandson, Ronnie Leintz, his sisters, Helen (Joseph) Fergel, Katherine (Ralph) Dressler, Clara (Jack) Schaff, Ann (William) Wickenheiser, and infant, Rosa; brothers, Lazarus, Ed (Rufina), John (Margie), Michael, and twin infant brother; and brother-in-law, William Shobe.
