

My Last Party

*When you come to my last party,
Don't come with long faces.
Come with memories that are pleasant in your heart.
Let there be a song or two.
The place will be filled with flowers.
And I will be dressed grand.
The only thing that I shall be sorry
For is that I will not be Around to shake your hand and make you smile.
When you come to my last party,
The daily paper will print the invitation
That everyone might see
I'm going to hold it in a church
And no one will be turned away
At this church where I hold my party,
Many of my friends will come to pray
When you come to my last party
We won't play games
But there will be a register
Where you can sign your name
And as you stand there and sing my praises in voices so silently
Please do not omit the good things
When you come to my last party
My Lord will be your host
Because he amongst all my friends
Who really loves me most
He bore my cross at Calvary
He bears my cross today
When you leave here,
He will be with me to comfort me on my way.
When you come to my last part,
In spirits I'll be there and as you stare, I'll stare back, but in spirit,
I'll be there.
Because at my last party,
it's up
To God to take care of me now.*

Obituary

A New Beginning...

God offered him a new beginning and the things of this world passed away for Maurice. Now, it is time for his new beginning with Jesus Christ. Angels rejoiced as one of their own was called home. On Monday, October 21, 2019, God released his angel of mercy to comfort and bring home the soul of Mr. Maurice (Cheeks) Hagood, 47. Maurice was born on February 8, 1972. He was one of two children to the late Ronald and Elaine Hagood of Savannah, GA. He was preceded in death by a daughter, Caurice Hagood.

There is no mistake in Heaven and God knew that it was time to bring Maurice home. Even though he is not here, his presence will live on through his children and family. Maurice is now at peace. Maurice is surrounded by God's love.

Maurice, go ahead and start your new beginning. The news of your passing brought a sorrow akin to pain. To have known him, was to love him.

We resolve to commend him to Jesus Christ, and those who will cherish his memories are his two loving daughters: Mrs. Menisha (Byron) Singleton, Ms. Maurissa Hagood both of Savannah, GA; one brother: Mr. Harold (Renaë) Hagood, Elberton, GA; seven aunts: Mrs. Yvonne (Commissioner James) Holmes, Mrs. Cynthia (Carlton), Mrs. Naomi (Curtis), Mrs. Margie Magwood, Ms. Esther Edwards, Mrs. Christina (Ronald) White, Mrs. Elizabeth (Ronald) Kimble, all of Savannah, GA; Mrs. Chiquita (Lee) Hudson, Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas; four uncles: Mr. Phillip Edwards, Savannah, GA; Mr. Mikell Hagood and Mr. O. Nnamdi Okpara Hagood, both of Atlanta; a special friend: Ms. Ariel Johnson, Savannah, GA; two nieces: Ms. Ariona Hagood and Ms. Arin Hagood, both of Elberton, Ga; one nephew: Mr. Harold Hagood, Jr. Elberton, GA; his special brothers: The No Good, but So Good Boys from Garden City; Godparents: Mrs. Beverly James and Mr. Vincent Williams, host of cousins, and many friends.
