

A Native American Prayer

I give you this one thought to keep:

I am with you still, I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow;

I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain;

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush,

I am the swift, uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not think of me as gone.

I am with you still in each new dawn!

I am going to miss you dearly. You always made me laugh. We talked for hours. Sam, I love you with all my heart. Now that you are in God's hands, I will never forget you. You will always be very special to me.
You earned your wings. Fly on, Sam.*
